their statement were indefinite as was condemned. It is further stated that on July 15, a hearing was granted the corporation for the purpose of remonstrating the amount of damage and the benefits received by the board's action.

The plaintiff charges that the board awarded $4,430 damages and $530 benefits, granting the company a net sum of $3,909. The plaintiff further alleges that this sum is wholly inadequate and that no benefits were received by the action of the board, and that the value of the real cetate was placed at $20,000 for which amount the plaintiff sues
